Excerpt: . the members having much flue work to do report the use of cleaning barrels. Geo. F. Morse, Portland Locomotive Works, cleans flues by slinging them in two endless chains suspended on revolving pulleys, applying sand and water, and allowing them to grind together by the motion of the chains. W. H. Stearns uses self-feeding clamp, and three rolls for cleaning flues, but does not explain the construction of the machine farther, or the process of cleaning. On Question 5th-- Members generally report using dies and formers more or less extensively. Allen Cook reports using Spring dies under steam hammer, saving time and help, and producing more uniform work. H. N. Sprague uses Spring dies and formers for most shapes under hammer, also heads, all pins for valve motion and similar work under steam hammer in steel dies, counterboring for head in die, cutting off...
