As we consider Nnsa s fiscal year 2002 budget request, our second such request since the agency s formation, we want to make sure that NNSA is putting together the best possible program to continue to ensure a strong national deterrent. I know General Gordon has been working tirelessly to bring together his team at the Nnsa and to reorganize the Department of Energy s (Doe) Defense Programs to provide a cohesive management structure that avoids the pitfalls that have plagued these programs in the past. Over the past 2 years, there have been several reports examining programs now in the Nnsa. These reports were critical of DOE s management. security failures. infrastructure.
