Is your work environment infected with the dysfunctional I and ME Team Virus I and Me are the driving forces behind dysfunctional organizational employer-employee relationships. This book embodies the message that all human beings have a purpose and can rise above any situation or circumstance as long as they remain ethically true to themselves. As you journey through this book, you will experience a multiplicity of real life work encounters such as, A manager espoused her opinion that lower-paid employees should serve higher-paid employees. In this encounter, the manager also stated, higher-salaried staff members are not paid to clean coffee pots (Excerpt B. L. Brown). Halo-Orangees book is a movement with encouraging straightforwardness; Author B. L. Brown confronts real-life workplace issues occurring in organizations world-wide (negativity, drama, power struggles, backstabbing, and endless gossip). The Introduction is entitled, Dont Allow Anyone to Confine You to a Box, Disabling Your Growth. Book Excerpt: You are the only one who defines you, so dont ever allow anyone to tell you who you are, or that you are not good enough B. L. Brown. Dont ever allow anyone to attack...
