D By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, . and by it, he being dead, yet speaketh. - Hebrews xi. 4. The writer of this epistle endeavours to lead men from Moses to Christ by establishing a connection between the old and the new, and showing how Christianity is a development (to use a modern word) of the ancient religion of Israel. He would have men pass thus, easily and naturally, without any violent break, from the Word of Moses to the Word of Christ; from the sacrifices of dumb animals, to the sacrifice of Christ s holy will; from the High Priest ministering within the veil, to Christ the High Priest appearing now in the presence of God. And so also he endeavours to establish a vital connection between the character of God s true people in former times, and that of true Christians under the new covenant. After all, he seems to say, men in olden times were justified in much the same way as men in the present. The form under which they received the truth was different.
