Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Back-Bay District and the Vendome What men can do to make Nature subservient to them is well shown in the district which is to be described briefly in the following pages. Only thirty years ago this territory was in reality a back bay: in one part the boys were wont to skate and swim, in another the refuse of the city was dumped, and in still another boats and various crafts used to sail. To-day that same district is one of the grandest architectural section in the world. It is intersected by the most fashionable thorough-fares of the aristocratic Bostonians; the broad avenues, running parallel to one another, having already done much to take away Boston s past fame of being a city of crooked lanes and narrow, winding streets. It is in this district that my specimens of the best modern architecture have been erected; the latest and costliest, and in many respects the most imposing, as well as the most central of which, in the Vendome, one of the finest hotel structures in the world, and by far the grandest in New England. It is since 1850 that the tide-water has been driven back, the basin filled with clean gravel to an average depth of eighteen feet, and the greater part of the section covered with handsome private residence and imposing public edifices; all of which stand upon made-land, with their foundations resting upon thousands of piles driven deep into the ground. It was this latter fact which caused Oliver Wendell Holmes, who was consulted on the subject, to suggest to Col. Wolcott the advisability of changing the name Vendome to Veneia; for,...
