Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Medical Eclectic, Vol. 2: New York, January 15th, 1875 Religion is free; the press is free; and medical practice, thank heaven, is steadily verging toward a like equality before the law, and independence of State domination. But this equality and liberty are not likely to be conceded unqualifiedly without further conflict. The pampered dog of the kennel is ill-content to let his free brother of the forest range the fields without chain and collar. Accordingly, the American Medical Association has proposed an appeal to the Legislatures of the several States, advocating that no more charters be granted to medical colleges which do not agree to adopt the plan of teaching which the Association shall hereafter demand. Perchance, if successful in grasping so much power, the next requirement would be to close up every institution now in existence, which will not conform to such a plan. It is always the first step which counts. Already, the worthy President of the National Public Health Association, has taken the initiative by a letter proposing the enforcing of a standard of qualification in all branches of medical learning about which doctors do not disagree, while materia medica, or medicines and their uses, from which spring all the systems of practice about which doctors disagree; shall be pursued in the hospitals after graduation. Instead of the present method of conferring the degree of Doctor of Medicine, Dr. Smith proposes to devolve that power upon a Medical Council, as in England. However plausible this may seem, it involves nothing short of the overthrow of every institution and School of Medicine, the tenets of which are not acceptable to the American Medical...
