Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from District Irrigation Laws of California: Decision Thereon by the Supreme Court, Notes and Index To provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes, approved March 7, 1887, as amended in 1889 and 1891. Section 1. Whenever fifty, or a majority of the holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands susceptible of one mode of irrigation from a common source, and by the same system of works, desire to provide for the irrigation of the same, they may propose the organization of an irrigation district, under the provisions of this Act, and when so organized such district shall have the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon such irrigation districts. The equalized county assessment roll next preceding the presentation of a petition for the organization of an irrigation district, under the provisions of this Act, shall be sufficient evidence of title for the purposes of this Act. (Amendment approved March 20, 1891.) The section before amendment read as follows: Section 1. Whenever fifty, or a majority of freeholders owning lands susceptible of one mode of irrigation from a common source, and by the same system of works, desire to provide for the irrigation of the same, they may propose the organization of an irrigation district under the provisions of this Act, and when so organized such districts shall have the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon such irrigation districts. Sec. 2. A petition shall first be presented to the Board of Supervisors of...
