Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from To the Congress of the United States To the Senators and Representatives in Congress assembled, by the undersigned, Senator elect of the State of New Mexico: By message of the President of the United States, the constitution adopted by the inhabitants of New Mexico was transmitted to the Senate, September 9th, 1850, on which day it was read and ordered to lie on the table, and on the following day, September 10th, ordered to be printed. September 12th, a communication of the under signed, and the accompanying memorial of the Legislature of New Mexico, the inaugural address and first message of Governor Manuel Alvarez, the memorial of the convention which framed the constitution, and the credentials of the undersigned, were ordered to lie on the table, and, September 17th, 1850, ordered to be printed. This is all the action which has been had on this subject; and it thus appears, (hat no answer has as yet been given to the respectful appeal of a large and important community to be admitted into the Union of the States, and to the enjoyment of all the blessings of liberty. Arguments having been presented, in Congress, based on erroneous assumptions, the undersigned will first address himself to the correction of such errors as have fallen under his observation. It has been asserted that the people of New Mexico were interfered with, and that the plan of bringing New Mexico into the Union as a State originated on the floor of the Senate. That the people of New Mexico were regardless of Presidential mes sages, or speeches in either branch of Congress, or letters from distinguished members of either...
