Now twenty-three, she s tired of waiting for Simeon to return to deepest Africa, where he is tracing the origins of the Blue Nile. So (in Duchess by Night) she travelled to the scandalous house party given by Lord Strange, and waited for her husband to return and save her reputation. Romancing the Duke opens when the duke returns. But shock follows shock: Simeon announces that he doesn t consider them properly married, and that he s a virgin. After getting to know Isidore a bit better, he offers an annulment and retires back to his country estate. Isidore is not a woman to reject a challenge. She follows Simeon into the country, determined to seduce him and consummate her marriage. But can a man used to leading desert tribes through perilous danger become a true marriage partner Or is he too much of a lone wolf, unused to taking advice or sharing his opinions Can Isidore overcome the self-possession that has kept him alive in the worst situations - and tempt him into a marriage that s against his best instincts 384 pp. Englisch.
