You did not go yourself to examine into the matter--A. Not at that time. I never went for that purpose. Q. Did Mr. Anderson at that time make an investigation?--A. No, sir. Q. Why not?--A. The papers were not sent to him. Q. Whom were they sent to?--A. To Mr. Okey. Q. Why did he not examine into it?--A. He did. Q. Where is his report?--A. He made quite an extensive examination, and iu the regular order of business his report came to me in the office. J lis report came to me for review, but in the interval--I am a little wrong there. In January following this I was sent to Mississippi to attend court in connection with some prosecutions I had instituted there, and his reports came in during my absence, and as soon as I returned I went to work in the chief s room. I was detailed to the chief s room, to Mr. Bailey, to help him with miscellaneous matter, and I saw this report that came to Mr. Bailey s desk, and he turned it over to me. I had that in my charge for a considerable while in February, 1891. Q. What did you do with that and what steps did you take?--A. You will understand that, in addition to the letter directing the investagation, we sent...
